Lab Sheet 8

Today you have to work on your project.

NOTE:

Including any plagiarized work for the project will result in 0%

Academic Honesty:

• You may help each other to understand the concept, as the purpose of this lab is to increase your understanding on the project topics. This, however, does not mean that someone else can do your project work for you, or that you can do someone else's work. Any work that you submit for project must be your.

• You must acknowledged if you get some idea, help from any source e.g, website, link, papers etc. Failure to acknowledge the source of a significant idea or approach is considered plagiarism and not allowed.

• Academic dishonesty will be dealt with severely.

• At a minimum, you will receive a mark of zero for the project.
